

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF GETS ROYAL WELCOME

General Pershing Receives Thanks of World's Greatest Democracy as He Lands at New York—Baker Awards Him Commission as Full General as He Steps Ashore—Will Parade With Division Wednesday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—America welcomed General Pershing home today.

Honored by foreign rulers and governments, the commander-in-chief of the mightiest army that ever fought its way to victory under the stars and stripes returned to his own people to meet a greater honor than any foreign potentate or power could confer—the thanks of the world's greatest democracy to the man who had planned the decisive blow in democracy's supreme fight against tyranny.

The stern faced soldier who had maintained his iron self-control among the shambles of the Meuse and the blood drenched forest of Argonne was not proof against the tribute of praise and gratitude which was roared from hundreds of thousands of throats and hearts of his fellow citizens.

His voice trembled with emotion as he responded to the greetings extended by Secretary Baker in his own behalf and that of the president as well as the welcoming addresses of representatives of the senate and house, the state and city. As his car passed thru the cheering multitudes which jammed Broadway and from the battery to the city hall, Pershing attempted in vain to maintain his composure. At first he replied to the cheers with the stiff salute which military etiquette demands but he was soon carried away by the storm of applause which swept in great gusts about him. Rising to his feet he waved his cap about his head with a boyish gesture which told how deeply he was stirred while the grim lines of his bronzed face broke into a smile which was as infectious as it was rare.

It was a proud moment for the great American soldier. New York did not exhaust its welcome today, Wednesday he will ride down Fifth avenue at the head of the First Division of the regular army, victors in the first battle ever fought on European soil by American soldiers.

With "Pershing's Own." Surrounded by comrades huddled in station but who had offered their all just as freely in the cause of liberty General Pershing first regaled his native land. When the huge Leviathan, once the pride of the world, neared her way thru the mists of the Jersey coast the general stood upon her deck with the famous "composite regiment," 2,000 picked American soldiers, known as "Pershing's Own."

These stalwart soldiers were his guard of honor when Paris and London paid tribute to the American commander and they will be his guard of honor when his own country's metropolis pays its full meed of praise Wednesday.

Just after the general walked down the gang plank at Hoboken he received the first reward which a grateful country has offered him. In the name of the nation Secretary Baker handed him his commission as full general in the American army, a rank held previously by only three men, Grant, Sheridan and Sherman.

Warren Holds Commission. Standing behind and hidden by the imposing figure of the general was a little boy trying to look very dignified and soldierly. He was "Sergeant" Warren Pershing, the commander-in-chief's only surviving child. When the general received his commission he turned to his son and handed him the document with an injunction to keep it safe. The "sergeant" kept it safely all right but later on, in the great crowd at the city hall he got separated from his father. When the boy was recovered his father asked anxiously:

"Warren, have you got the commission?" "Yes, sir," replied the "sergeant," promptly. "Well, see that you hold on to it."

The army and officialdom did not have it all their way at the preliminary reception at Hoboken. Among a little army of welfare workers who greeted General Pershing were fifty girls, three of whom were decorated for bravery under fire while serving with the first division. Eight naval seaplanes soared and circled over the Leviathan as she steamed up the bay.

For hours before the arrival of the general, the "battery" was thronged with thousands who stood in serried ranks silently waiting. As the little boat with its distinguished party steamed up to the pier an uproar began such as Manhattan probably never before had heard. From a thousand factories and vessels sirens shrieked out a raucous welcome but vainly tried to drown the roar of cheers which rose and fell and rose again. Overhead airplanes dipped and circled.

At first General Pershing seemed to be suffering more from embarrassment than any other emotion. He walked swiftly from the landing stage to his gaily decorated automobile and settled himself down in his seat like a man who has an important journey to make and wants to get it over with as quickly as possible. But as the long procession of cars stopped up Broadway he was engulfed in a flood of enthusiasm

PERSHING PAYS TRIBUTE TO "THE AMERICAN DOUGHBOY"

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—"The American doughboy" is the finest soldier in the world, and it didn't take the Germans long to find it out. Declared General Pershing in an interview with newspapermen today. "We boasted a little of the American fighting man, but his aggressive, initiative and devotion as a member of the American expeditionary forces give us every right to boast and to be proud of him."

"I suppose it is because of the way the American boy is raised, due to the fact that he is encouraged to develop his initiative and that he feels at any crisis of his life that he is master of his own destiny."

The interview was brought about in the hope the general might be willing to express his views on what he intended doing when he entered civil life, when he expected to retire from the army and similar questions, was preceded by a general handshaking and a remark by General Pershing that all such topics were "taboo."

I am still on duty," he said. "It is a pleasant duty but very strenuous."

The question was asked: "General, what do you consider the crowning achievements of your service abroad?" To which he replied:

"Cutting the German lines at Sedan on November 6."

"Was that a more difficult operation than cutting the Hindenburg line?" he was asked.

"Cutting the Hindenburg line was a start toward cutting the line at Sedan. It was hard to tell what might have become of it under difficult circumstances. It followed the final effort of the Germans to force their way thru but their armies were beaten before they started."

"General, will you say a few words about Marshal Foch?" "Marshal Foch," he replied, "is a very great strategist."

A question was asked as to his impressions upon his departure for France 27 months ago and his return, to which he replied:

"When we left the day was foggy. We could not see the Statue of Liberty. There was no bells ringing, no whistles (except for horns) blowing and no ships gaily dressed. Why, there is as much difference between our departure and homecoming as between midnight and noon."

"I anticipated while on the other side some kind of a welcome upon our return home but nothing I thought then could equal my impressions today. I find difficulty in expressing my sentiments."

Some one asked: "What do you think about the crisis in Europe?" to which he responded:

"I don't think we had better get into European affairs at all."

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Existence of an organized propaganda movement in the United States calculated to counteract any step toward armed intervention in Mexico was established at the first hearing today of the senate foreign relations subcommittee charged with investigating the Mexican situation.

Dr. Samuel G. Inman, an officer in the League of Free Nations association and a former neighbor in Mexico of President Carranza, admitted that his association had sent out literature aimed to quiet any demand for intervention by the United States in Mexico. Dr. Inman said the American oil companies were expending large sums of money in an attempt to obtain intervention, but under cross examination he said recently had been told that the oil interests were opposed to intervention.

Dr. Inman told the committee that in his opinion President Carranza was a man of honor and integrity and that he had a strong faith in the ability of Mexico to work out its own problem if given friendly assistance by the United States. He deprecated intervention, adding that it would stunt the growth of the carefully cultivated Pan-American idea.

Bishop James Cannon of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, said that the only intervention advisable in Mexico was that of the church and school.

During the cross-examination which followed his testimony, Inman was subjected to sharp questioning by Senator Fall, New Mexico, chairman of the subcommittee and Senator Brandegee, Connecticut. He many times admitted that he was unable to give the committee details of charges which he had made, and at his request will be permitted to appear again.

Inman was questioned concerning articles put out by his association many of which he said were by L. J. Debecker. One of the articles was entitled "The Truth About Mexico," and the investigating subcommittee was led by that notorious enemy of Carranza, Senator Fall.

The witness was unable to give the name of the author of the article. A letter which Chairman Fall said was written and circulated by Inman, contained a riot call to friends of Mexico to do what they could to prevent armed intervention in Mexico, saying that such action was imminent and charging that a deliberate effort was being made to cause congress to authorize such action. Another paragraph of the letter quoted said that "when the country had waked up a little bit more it would be easy to pull off a few raids as already had been done."

"What do you mean by that?" demanded Senator Fall.

For an hour the witness fenced with Senator Fall and Senator Brandegee before they secured from him anything but an evasion. Senator Fall insisted upon knowing if he referred to the oil interests. Dr. Inman replied he did not and spoke of what had been printed in newspapers. Thereupon he was challenged by the senators to produce any newspaper which had said that the raiding of Columbus or any other border town had been purchased by Americans.

The witness then suggested that some "renegade" American might do it. It was countered with the suggestion that a renegade soldier has enough money for such purposes. In the end Dr. Inman said "but senator, haven't I made it clear that what I am trying to say now and what

WILSON ASSERTS PRO-GERMANISM IS AGAIN ACTIVE

Warns Hearers of the Dangers from This Element

SILOU CITY, S. D., Sept. 8.—Declaring that pro-Germanism again had lifted its head in this country, President Wilson declared in an address tonight that every element of "chaos" was nothing there would be "no standing hand" placed on the world's affairs.

"I want to tell you," he said, "that within the last two weeks the pro-German element in the United States again has lifted its head."

This time I saw a chance, I said, by keeping their nation out of the league of nations, to make possible again what Germany had tried to do in the great war. It was a clear cut issue between this new order or the old German order.

Declaring the peace treaty provision for an international labor conference would give labor a new bill of rights, the president declared the treaty was a "laboring man's treaty" in the sense that it was a treaty drawn up for the benefit of the common people.

"The political satenents themselves," he said, were made for the peoples concerned. He asserted that the document laid down forever the principle that no territory ever should be governed except as its people wanted it governed.

"That is an absolute reversal of history," said the president, "and it is all in the league of nations."

High taxes, a large standing army and a "military government in spirit" would be required, he said, if the United States were to follow the advice of some men and "stand by herself."

Asking his hearers to suppose for a moment that the land titles of South Dakota were to upset and every farm line moved ten feet, Mr. Wilson said that was something like what would happen in Europe and a "military" government would be necessary to stabilize conditions and prevent strife.

"Your choice," he said, "is between the league of nations and Germanism. I have told you what I mean by Germanism—having a chip on your shoulder."

When the president added that some times he had been "called an idealist" some one shouted, "Good" and the crowd cheered.

The "certain way" to have trouble between capital and labor, he said was for them to refuse to discuss their differences. He said he could not understand how a man could refuse to discuss his case. The same rule, he declared applied to differences between nations.

America could stay out of the league but it would be at the expense of the peace of the world.

"America is necessary," he added, "to the peace of the world and the peace and confidence of the world are necessary to America."

Text of Speech.

"Governor Norbeck and My Fellow Citizens:

"I must admit that every time I face a great audience of my fellow countrymen on this trip I am filled with a feeling of peculiar solemnity because I believe that we have come to one of the turning points in the history of the world. And what I covet for this great country is that on every great occasion when mankind's fortunes are hung in the balance, that America may lead the way."

"I want to remind you that that war was not an accident. On the contrary, Germany had been preparing for it for generations. Germany had been preparing every skill, developing every invention which would enable her to master the European world and to dominate the rest of the world. Everybody had been looking on. Everybody had known. For example it was known in every war office in Europe and in the war department in Washington that the Germans not only had a vast supply of great field guns but that they had ammunition enough to exhaust every gun. And yet we were living in a fool's paradise. We thought Germany meant what she said that she was armed for defense and that she never would use the great store of guns against her fellow men. Why, my friends, it was fore ordained the minute Germany conceived these purposes, that she should do the thing which she did in 1914."

"I have brought back from Europe with me a treaty in which Germany is disarmed and in which all the other nations of the world never go to war. That is my gift to you."

"If Germany had dreamed that she would like the greater part of the world would combine against her, she never would have begun the war and she didn't dare let the opinions of mankind crystallize against her by the disclosure of the purposes while she had in mind. So what I want to point out is that we are making a fundamental choice. You cannot have a new system unless you supply a substitute an adequate substitute for the old and I want to say that Germany and America to stay out and take care of themselves."

"There were passions let loose on the field of the world at war which have not grown quiet, and which will not for a long time. And even a moment of disorder, is a moment when the world would be playing hand from the council of nations to hold the order of the world steady until we can make the final arrangements of justice and peace."

 It says I see a chance for Germany and America to stay out and take care of themselves."

LEAGUE OPPONENTS ANSWER PRESIDENT WILSON'S DEMAND

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Opponents of the league of nations answering President Wilson's demand to "put up or shut up," offer as a substitute "the constitution of the United States, the Declaration of Independence, and Lincoln government" by the people. Senator Poindexter, Republican, Washington, declared today in an address to the senate.

"The president," Senator Poindexter said, "offers us a government by council in Geneva and says you must take it if you have nothing better to offer. It is not a question of something better to offer. The question is whether there is anything worse that could be offered."

"How can the president tell the people," demanded Senator Poindexter, "that the league founded on the principle that Europe shall participate in the control of American affairs, and that America shall participate in the control of European affairs, does not abrogate the Monroe doctrine?"

Quoting the president as saying Germany would not have invaded Belgium if she had known the United States would have intervened, Senator Poindexter said:

"What prevented the United States from intervening? Is it not true that President Wilson himself prevented us from intervening in order that he might make a campaign for the presidency on the slogan 'He kept us out of war.'"

WILL MAKE SOME CONCESSIONS TO RATIFY TREATY

Indications Are That Compromise Will Be Made in Senate

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Marked indications of a compromise in the senate controversy over the reservations to the league of nations covenant came today from both Democratic and Republican sources after Republican Leader Lodge had announced that the treaty would be reported to the senate Wednesday and probably taken up for consideration next Monday.

An important development today was a statement to the senate by Senator Simmons of North Carolina, prominent in administration leadership, declaring some concessions in the way of reservations will have to be made to secure its ratification. Although opposing some of the Lodge reservations, Senator Simmons said he was suggesting a compromise on "conservative reservations of an interpretive character."

Republican senators continued efforts to compose differences over a reservation to article ten. Senators McCumber, North Dakota, Kellogg, Minnesota, and Lenroot, Wisconsin, were said to have drafted substitute reservations which were discussed privately today.

Senator Poindexter, Republican, Washington, replied to statements of President Wilson in his speechmaking tour.

Referring to the president's challenge to league opponents to "put up or shut up," Senator Poindexter said the substitute for the league offered by its opponents was the Declaration of Independence and Lincoln's government and for the people."

Considerable significance was attached by Senators. Senator Simmons' formal statement, although he disclaimed privately that he spoke for the president. He explained that he gave only his personal view of the senate situation and this explanation was supported by Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, since a leader of the foreign relations committee, who said President Wilson's position on reservations, even of a mild variety, had not yet been made known.

Republican leaders, however, called Senator Simmons' statement as a frank concession that the treaty cannot be ratified without reservations.

"I am in favor of and will gladly vote for the treaty and the league covenant as it was originally presented by the president without amendments or reservations," said Senator Simmons. "I agree with the president that it contains nothing that would jeopardize American interests. It should be ratified without further delay."

"But after a study of the situation I am convinced that some concessions in the consideration of reservations must be made."

"However, after a thorough study of the situation in the senate I am convinced that some concessions in the way of reservations will have to be made to secure its ratification and, so believing, I have recently discussed with a number of my colleagues the advisability of reaching some compromise between those who are in favor of the treaty without reservations and those who are in favor of it with conservative reservations of an interpretive character."

"I am utterly opposed, however, to the reservations proposed by the foreign relations committee. Some of these reservations would radically change the scope and character of the instrument emasculating some of the main provisions of the league and which would call for reconsideration of the peace conference."

Society Opposes Intervention In Mexico

Expect Strike Action By End Of This Week

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 8.—Delinquent action by the end of this week on the threatened strike is expected of the convention of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and railway shop laborers which opened its sessions today with more than 2,000 delegates, from the United States, Canada and Panama Canal zone present.

The membership already has voted power to the executive committee to call a continent wide strike of the 500,000 men in these crafts unless wage demands and working agreements asked of the railway administration and the Canadian government are granted.

On Friday the convention will discuss the wage question from every angle and likely will take decisive action on the proposed strike. Sentiment of the convention is in favor of a walkout unless the demands are granted.

Delegates anticipated today that Mr. Hines would state their administration's regarding the demands in his address Wednesday.

Delegates hold that the brotherhood is not unreasonable in asking an average daily increase of $1 a man with the proviso that the lower paid men receive the greater benefit, claiming that 25 per cent of the membership receive not more than $2.50 a day.

BULLETINS

BERLIN, Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press.)—Four hundred German workers have volunteered for the work of restoration in northern France according to Vorwarts.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Terms on which the recent theatrical strike was settled were ratified today by the Actors' Equity association. These terms provide for recognition of the equity with increased salaries and favorable working conditions demanded by the association, but assuring an "open shop."

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—The Boston Police union tonight voted to call a strike effective at 5:45 p. m. tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Senator McCormick's resolution to express it as the sense of the senate that no troops should be sent overseas without express authority of congress and that American troops now serving in Europe and Siberia should be returned home with theutmost despatch, was referred today to the foreign relations committee.

Both Senators Brandegee and Fall were insistent that he be more specific regarding charges that the amount of money being spent by oil companies for propaganda is appalling.

He was unable to give any exact data but quoted Mr. Debecker as saying they were maintaining two offices at New York and Washington, well furnished and that large numbers of agents were employed. Their medium of reaching the public, he declared, was the society for the protection of American rights in Mexico. This led to questions as to his charges that the oil men had opposed Carranza by paying Palmer, the rebel leader, for protection. A half hour of that discussion and Inman admitted that he himself would pay for protection if it were necessary.

The witness then suggested that some "renegade" American might do it. It was countered with the suggestion that a renegade soldier has enough money for such purposes. In the end Dr. Inman said "but senator, haven't I made it clear that what I am trying to say now and what

FOR CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

Not only Morgan county, but Illinois, is fortunate in having such candidates as Clinton L.
Conklin and Logan Hay for the approaching constitutional convention. That they are lawyers honors that profession more than it has them. Mr. Conklin can trace his high character and patriotism back to a father who was a personal friend and supporter of that greatest American, Abraham Lincoln. It was to the elder Conklin that Mr. Lincoln sent his message to Illinois, at the time of the great union meeting at Springfield, in midsummer of 1862, when the hopes of mankind hung in the balance in the uncer-tainities of the civil war. And even the then youthful C. L.

Conklin had the privilege of knowing the great emancipator and freer of labor.

It is a privilege too seldom denied us at the polls of voting for a man of such ability, education and high character as Mr. Conklin.

Besides the qualifications already alluded to, Mr. Conklin has an all around knowledge that especially fits him for the position.

While Logan Hay is younger than his coming colleague, he,
too, is of exceptional qualification by birth and ability. His father, the Hon. Milton Hay, was a friend and professional brother of Lincoln, and one of the ablest men of Illinois.

The younger Hay as the younger Conklin, is "the worthy son of an illustrious sire," and unlike many sons of the great—has made high political position for himself.

As a lawyer, a legislator, a friend of Illinois college and the youth of the state, Mr. Hay is suited for what will be demanded of him in the convention.

Only in the conflict against slavery in the early days of this commonwealth, and in the national struggle against that oppressor of the poor, has our state been brought face to face with more important issues than those which the coming convention will have to consider and act upon.

No one caring for Illinois or for himself or his children can properly fail to vote for the nomination and election of these two splendidly qualified citizens of our district and state.

THE PASSAVANT
HOSPITAL CAMPAIGN

The Good Work Moving Along;
Some Gifts Already in and More to Follow.

The campaign for Passavant hospital is under way and it is strongly hoped that it will be successful. Some gifts were received yesterday and more are hoped for right along. Teams are organizing their forces and will get right down to business.
It would be a disgrace to this community to let this worthy movement fail; it must not fail
and it will not fail.

Rev. W. E. Spoons is on hand in the Farrell bank ready to hand out supplies of subscription cards and to receive all donations. Don't forget that this institution is the property in fee simple of all the Protestant churches of the city and county and adjacent territory. Some big donations are hoped for; several hundred dollars each. Then the desire is to find a hundred persons in Jacksonville who will give a hundred dollars each and fifty in the adjacent territory. Morgan, Scott and other counties who will give a hundred dollars each. Then smaller contributions will make up to $25,000 needed.

LETTER FROM DR. BLACK
Jacksonville, Illinois
September 8, 1919.

Rev. W. E. Spoons
Manager of the Campaign for Funds for Passavant Memorial Hospital.
Dear Sir:
I understand that it has been reported that I am opposed to the campaign that is now on for Passavant Hospital. I think the people of Jacksonville and community know my interest in this hospital and they can not question my loyalty to it. Whatever differences of opinion as to policy and management I may have had in the past were with officers or groups of officers but not with the hospital staff. It is a necessary community institution and deserves the support of all good citizens.

For the last year I have been out of touch with the hospital and know very little about its present condition, but I am persuaded that it needs all the money the campaign out to raise, and I am willing to do my part. I wish the hospital nothing but the greatest success.

Very truly,
Carl E. Black.

No hospital can fill its position in a community without the personal and financial help of the individuals who compose that community. It is time that Jacksonville should do its duty toward its hospitals, and the sick that need hospital assistance and cannot get well without.

TENNESSEE SOLDIER
VISITS FRIENDS HERE

Karl Vines, who has been visiting the family of W. T. Scott, east of the city, left Sunday for his home in Johnson City, Tenn. Mr.
Vines has been in the navy for the past four years and was aboard the Battleship Dakota and was a chief yeoman.

The mother of Mr. Vines was formerly Miss Isabel Scott, deceased, who was a resident of this county, being a sister of W. T.
Scott. The son is 23 years of age and had not visited his mother's relatives since he was seven years old.

He has had many adventures during the last four years and has seen much of the world. He expects to go to New York where he has a good position as soon as he visits at his Tennessee home. He was accompanied to St. Louis by his cousin, Paul Scott.

DR. BLACK TELLS OF EXPERIENCES

Addresses Large Audience at Congregational Church Sunday Evening.

An audience very gratifying in size and close attention greeted Dr. C. E. Black at the Congregational church Sunday night when he told some of his experiences while an envoy of the Red Cross in foreign lands. He said it was simply impossible to tell how glad he was to be at home again,
the dearest place on all the earth.
While away the chief topic of conversation in his own company was home. He said in brief:

In Greece the U. S. is the best beloved country in the world. I prefer to speak in this church for from it I went and in a measure
I feel as if I were here to give an account of my stewardship. I felt fortunate when I was invited to go to Greece. Bulgaria and all those adjacent countries are interesting but Greece is especially so. Greece holds an important position and like Lloyd George, I believe Venezuela is the greatest man the war has developed and he has done wonders for Greece.

A few years ago Macedonia and much of Asia Minor belonged to Turkey but now much of that territory goes to Greece by the terms of the armistice. And Thrace should also be a part of Greece.

Wonderful Work of Red Cross.
The American Red Cross was the most wonderful work for humanity ever undertaken. The people whom we met over there couldn't realize or believe that so much money, five hundred millions, had been subscribed to be given away. And then the spirit which animated the work was even worth more than the money.
In one hospital I saw 500 patients walking about in American made pajamas, many of them knit or made by generous women on this side of the water. The wearers were proud of their underwear and would even have worn them thru the day and into the street
if they could.

Tonight, however, I want especially to talk of Salonica which is truly the cross roads of the world.
There we met British, American,
Serbian, Italian and other nationalities—troops a heterogeneous lot Salonica is the center of British operations. Macedonia has been the source of many wars. It is surrounded by various countries, on the east by Thrace and should by all means belong to Greece as well as Thrace for it is Grecian in history, population and sympathy very largely.

First Service in Bulgaria.
My first service was in Bulgaria where there we met sights almost unutterable. Bulgaria was determined to have Macedonia and having the power went into that unhappy country and carried away 150,000 people, mostly all Greeks, who she wanted away from that country less they be unwilling for her dominion. The condition of these wretched people when we went there baffles description. I have names and dates and am fully fortified in all that I state. It was the especial delight of the fiendish Bulgarians to separate families; mothers from little children; husbands from wives and all such atrocious things as that. Then too, shocking to relate, they took delicately reared men and many women and set them to work in trenches and others, hard menial labor at the same time half feeding and clothing them until they were in the most deplorable condition when we found them. They were well night demoralized; their vitality so destroyed they had little ambition and strength to begin over again.

When we essayed to go into the country to help the poor Greeks the Bulgarians tried to stop us and the Greek Red Cross but we said we were going in and we went in. My especial department was the returning of the Greeks to Macedonia and we had a hard time indeed. We fixed up a freight car and managed to live in it very well but our supplies didn't come. We must take off our hats to the Greeks for their poble conduct. I appealed to the British commander for supplies and he did the best he could; let us have 55,000 rations and it was a great help.

Some of the tortures were fiendish. Men were hung by their heels till dead; for trifling offenses the poor captives received 15 and 6, which means 15
severe lashes and six still harder.
One city was reduced from 35,000
to 6,000.

By the terms of the armistice
the Bulgarians were compelled to return the Greeks to Macedonia
but they made it just as uncon-fortable as possible. They would let one man have a ticket for forty people, separate the company and often compel the ones detached to pawn their clothes, such as they were, or do unheard of things to get tickets which were already theirs by right.

The Prison Camps.
Some of the prison camps were vile beyond description and caused many deaths and they placed them as far away from Macedonia as possible and we had harrowing experiences with poor mothers trying to find their children;
husbands trying to find their wives and the like. After two years suffering in this awful manner it was very hard to arouse any life, activity or ambition in the hearts of the desolate ones. In one place we had 1,000 orphans and there were other thousands. And now what is to be done with and for them all is a great problem. They were mostly returned to Macedonia but there they are and on the hands of Greece hardly able to care for them properly. We went into the war and now shall we hold our arms and stop? If so there will be other wars; there are now in the Balkans questions America must answer; are we interested in the peace of the world and are we willing to help where our strong hand is needed? In the Balkans they hardly know peaceful pursuits and must have help.

Itching, Scratching, Skin Diseases That Burn Like Flames of Fire

Here is a Sensible Treatment That Gets Prompt Results

For real, downright, harassing discomfort, very few disorders can approach so-called skin diseases, such as eczema, tetter, boils, eruptions, scaly irritations and similar skin troubles, notwith standing the lavish use of salves, lotions, washes and other treatment applied externally to the irritated parts.

No one ever heard of a person being afflicted with any form of skin disease whose blood was in good condition. Therefore, it is but logical to conclude that the proper method of treatment for pimples, blotches, sores, boils, rough, red and scaly skin, is to purify the blood and remove the tiny germs of pollution that break through and manifest their presence on the surface of the skin.

People in all parts of the country have written us how they were completely rid of every trace of these disorders by the use of S. S. S., the matchless, purely vegetable, blood purifier. S. S. S. goes direct to the center of the blood supply, and purifies and cleanses it of every vestige of foreign matter, giving a clear and ruddy complexion that indicates perfect health. DRAINAGE DISTRICT OPINION IS MADE

Judge Samuel Decid's Jurisdiction in Indian Creek Drainage District No. 2 Remains in Morgan County—Brief By Logan Hay.
Judge Samuel in the county court yesterday gave the decision determining that the jurisdiction of Indian Creek Drainage District No. 2 shall remain within this county. The court subsequently reappointed as commissioners for the district Henry Treadway, R. P. Goodpasture and M. A. Heffner. In this proceeding the petitioners sought to have the jurisdiction of the district taken into Cass county on the ground that a majority of the land included in the district is in Cass county. The petitioners were represented by W. H. Deirich of Beardstown and the commissioners by Worthington, Reeve and Green of this city and Logan Hay of Springfield.

The decision depended largely upon the question as to whether house bill No. 68 passed by the last general assembly, became a law July 1, 1919, or became a law July 11, 1919, and effective July 1, 1920. The bill had for its purpose covering a situation of this kind, changing court jurisdiction to a county having the larger area of land in a given district. As the question at issue demanded some extensive study of legislative records the local firm of attorneys secured Logan Hay of the firm of Brown, Hay and Creighton, to become associated with them. Mr. Hay's written opinion of the questions at issue was addressed to the commissioners of Indian Creek Drainage district No. 2 and was filed in the county court yesterday.
The review consists of some 13 pages wherein Mr. Hay expresses the view that the house bill referred to was passed in regular form and became a law July 11, but that it will not go into effect until July 1, 1920. It seems that the bill after its passage was presented to the governor for his signature June 24 and that he did not sign it but filed it in the office of the secretary of state, without objections on June 28.
Under these conditions it is Mr. Hay's opinion that the law did not become effective until ten days after the adjournment of the general assembly, which was on June 30. The opinion is substantiated by a very careful and extensive review of the case and the finding of the court was no doubt quite largely influenced by Mr. Hay's argument and the supreme court opinions cited in substantiation of that argument.

Experts or Theorists—Which?
The packing industry is intricate, complex—far more so than the railroads or the telegraph.
Every day multiplying needs of society increase its problems and multiplying responsibilities demand more of it.
Highly trained experts, specialists of years' experience, thinkers and creative men, devote their lives, their energies, their activities, to solving the problems of the packing industry and meeting its widening duties.
Swift & Company is not a few dozen packing plants, a few hundred branch houses, a few thousand refrigerator cars, and a few million dollars of capital, but an organization of such men. It is the experience, intelligence, initiative and activity which operates this physical equipment.
Can this intelligence, this experience, this initiative and creative effort which handles this business at a profit of only a fraction of a cent per pound from all sources, be fostered through the intervention of political theorists, however pure their purposes? Or be replaced by legislation? Does Congress really think that it can?
Let us send you a Swift "Dollar". It will interest you.

EMPORIUM OWNER HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Blinded By Dazzling Headlights and Dust H. S. Greenstone Drives Winton Six Car Into Stone Abutment—Car Is Badly Damaged—Thieves Take Tires Before Wrecking Crew Arrives.

An automobile accident which proved more than ordinarily disastrous in point of property damage, yet without personal injury, was that which happened last Saturday night to H. S. Greenstone and his new Winton Six in which the car was completely wrecked, the accident occurring at 8:45 o'clock at a point about eight miles this side of Springfield.

Mr. Greenstone has business interests in Springfield and as his custom started for that city about 7:30 o'clock. As he neared the place of accident, his view of the road was obscured by dust stirred up by a team ahead which he was preparing to pass, and almost at the same instant he was blinded by the glare of undimmed headlights on an approaching car. There was a sudden terrific crash and Mr. Greenstone felt himself shoot out of the car. When he came to his senses he was lying on his back in the grass at some distance from the road. His car had struck head on against a concrete abutment to a culvert, and was a total wreck the damage estimated at $2,500. Such an accident without serious personal injury could not happen once in a thousand times, and Mr. Greenstone is feeling exceedingly thankful at his fortunate escape and congratulating himself that he did not have several passengers when doubtless one or more could not have escaped.

A passing car took Mr. Greenstone to Springfield from which point a wrecking crew was sent for the remains of the Winton Six.

A deplorable feature in connection with the accident is that between the time of Mr. Greenstone's departure and the return of the wrecking crew some person or persons stole three tires, all of the tools and other moveable parts of the car, approximating about $300. Suspicion has been directed to certain persons and it is thought arrests soon will follow.

Mr. Greenstone carried a $3,500 policy on his car with Bancroft & King of this city, and Mr. King stated Monday afternoon that the full amount would be paid promptly.

Every automobile owner should protect himself by carrying one of Bancroft & King's reliable full-coverage auto accident policies. Either phone 783, or call at 305 Ayers Bank Bldg.

When The Day Is Over

When the household cares and the worries of everyday life have dragged you down; made you unhappy; and there is nothing in life but ache, backache and worry, turn to the right prescription, one gotten up by Dr. Pierce fifty years ago.

Everything growing out of the "round" ems intended for some use in establishing natural conditions. Dr. Pierce, of ufafo, N. Y., long since found out what naturally best for women's diseases learned it all through treating thousands of cases. The result of his study as a medicine called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backache, headache, weakness, bearing-down pains, irregularities, elvic inflammations, and for the man disorders common to women in all ages. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription: made of lady's slipper root, black cohosh root, blue cohosh root, unicorn root, blue grape root, Dr. Pierce knew when he first made this standard medicine, that whiskey and morphine are irrisious, and so he has always kept them out of his remedies. Women who take his standard remedy know that in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they are getting a safe woman's tonic so good that druggists everywhere sell it, in liquid or tablet form.

The Secret of a Superlative Tire

The whole question of a super-tire is a matter of principles. For there is nothing exclusive in the industry. No patents, no secret formulas prevent a conscientious maker from building the best.

But cost and competition modify ideals. The Brunswick idea is to pay perfection's price and get it.

That has been the Brunswick policy since 1845. And it accounts for the growing preference for Brunswick Tires. Motorists expect the utmost from a tire bearing the name of Brunswick—and get it.

You, too, will be convinced by your first Brunswick, that here is an extraordinary tire, and that more money cannot buy a better.

Better tires of their type are impossible—or better tubes. That we guarantee.

COMBINATIONS TAKE INDEES MEASURE

Pekin Team Wins Game by Score of 4 to 1—Opportunity Hitting and Good Pitching by Claude Brought Victory—Visitors Work Squeeze on Locals.

That any team that comes here and plays better ball than the Indians can win the game was demonstrated by the Pekin combinations Sunday afternoon when they took the Indians into camp by a score of 4 to 1.

One to read the communication of the Vindex Nationals and to hear some disgruntled fans talk who probably had money up against the home team, would believe that no team could win a game here under any conditions. The Pekin aggregation demonstrated that if a team plays better ball than the Indians they can win.

That was what Pekin did Sunday. They made 12 hits to six for the Indians. While each team made two boots, those of the Indians were more costly. The visitors also outgassed the locals and pulled the squeeze in the seventh for a counter.

The victory of Pekin may be largely attributed to Claude, who pitched from the port side, Claude had everything a pitcher should have, a fast ball, a slow one and a good curve. He had them all working and tightened up in the pinches and kept the locals away from the pan. In addition to sterling pitching he won his own game in the seventh by driving in the run that untied the count and scoring a moment later when Clay laid the ball down.

For the visitors, Callahan caught a good game and Howell and Bennett played a fine fielding game. For the locals, McManus and Simms played a great game in the field and Riggs pulled down several drives that looked good for extra bases.

How the Runs Were Made.

Pekin scored in the first. White walked and took third when Clay doubled to left. Belsinger hit to McManus and White was cut off at the pan. Clay took third on a fielder's choice and scored on Briggs' wild throw.

Thel caught tied the count in their half. After Mahan had gone out Belsinger to Bennett, Briggs hit to center for two bases, Vodel misjudging the drive. He went to third on Ruble's out, Howell to Bennett and scored on Shook's double.

That ended the scoring until the seventh when Pekin put the game on ice. Dittmer doubled and scored on Claude's single. The latter took second on the peg to the plate and third on White's infield out. He scored on Clay's

BABE RUTH HITS 26TH HOME RUN

Boston Player Breaks Record Made by "Buck" Freeman. Made Twenty Years Ago—Red Sox Win Both Games of Double Bill.

New York, Sept. 8.—Boston defeated New York in both sections of a double header today the scores being 3 to 1 and 3 to 0. In the eighth inning of the first game Ruth hit a home run into the right field for his twenty-sixth home run of the year, breaking the established major league record. Freeman of the Washington National League club had held the record for years when he hit twenty-five home runs in 1899.

Word was received from Ban Johnson that the Detroit Club protested the second game of the double header on the ground that it was a game transferred to New York from Boston. Under the league constitution one team can prevent the transferring of games from one city to another.

MT. EMORY'S PASTOR GOES EAST

Rev. E. A. Crockett, D. D., pastor of Mt. Emory's Baptist church and corresponding and executive secretary of the General Baptist state convention of Illinois, left his morning for Chicago where he will board a special train carrying the Missouri and Illinois delegation to Newark, N. J., to attend the National Baptist convention of America. Dr. Crockett has for years been one of the strongest supporters of the convention and his worth has been much felt by the leading forces of that body. Already he has been slated to fill quite an important place on one of the board of the convention. Much is expected to be accomplished at this meeting, not only for the Baptist but for the race at large in which the Rev. Mr. Crockett will play an important part.

Asserts New Discovery

Brings Blessed Relief to Rose

and Hay Fever Sufferers

Can Make It Yourself At Home At Trifling Expense

In spite of all the doubters and scoffers, a man in Kentucky, who changed his annoying and distressing hay fever into less than a mild cold, claims most emphatically that if taken in time hay fever can be conquered or at least made so harmless that it is not even bothersome.

He gave his discovery to scores of other sufferers with the most remarkable results and has recently been prevailed upon to dispense it through pharmacists to all hay fever sufferers who still have faith that nature has provided an effective remedy for this common yet miserable disease.

And best of all this remedy costs almost nothing. Get a one ounce bottle of Mentholized Archie at any drug store, pour the contents into a pint bottle and fill the pint bottle with water that has been boiled.

Then gargle as directed and twice daily sniff or spray each nostril thoroughly.

That's all there is to it; so simple that a lot of people will say that it can't do the work but oftentimes simple natural remedies are the best as you will find after using.

If you will make up a pint and use it for a week or ten days you need not be surprised if your unwelcome yearly visitor fails to appear.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

The Montana Power Co. has declared a quarterly dividend of 75 cents a share on its common stock. Previous payments have been $1.25. Unsettled business conditions were ascribed as the reasons for the reduction.

Mathieson Alkali Works, Inc., for the year ended June 30, reports profit depletion, depletion and Federal taxes of $43,962, equivalent after deduction of preferred dividends to $6.13 a share earned on the $5,885,706 common stock of $50 par.

The Central Trust Co. of Georgia, heading the interests which recently acquired the Coca-Cola Co., reports that the common stock of the new company has been greatly oversubscribed at $40 a share. The stock attracted many small investors who wished to buy fewer than five shares.

A. E. Fittkin & Co., New York, is offering $1,000,000 Southern Oil Corporation first mortgage 6 per cent serial convertible gold bonds dated July 1, 1919, and due from July 1, 1920 to 1925. NEW YORK STOCKS

Active and Strong

New York, Sept. 8.—Stocks were active and strong on the resumption of trading today, but the market soon lapsed into dullness with a heavy undertone, owing mainly to the absence of bullish incentive.

The deadlock in the steel labor situation was again the chief deterrent. United States Steel fluctuated between 102 and 104 3/8, closing at 103 5/8, unchanged, but allied shares were inclined to strengthen later, finishing mostly at gains.

Trading in rails was negligible. Almost the only elements of consistent strength were provided by oils, motors and shippings, but even in those groups considerable shifting of commitments was evident. Mexican Petroleum enhanced the latter dealings at an extreme advance of 12 1/2 points. Among specialties industrial alcohol was noteworthy for its rise of over six points and several of the motor specialties, particularly Fisher body were strong, tobacco also becoming firm to strong.

Sales amounted to 675,000 shares.

Firmer tendencies were manifested in the money market, call loans closing at eight per cent, after opening at 5 1/2. Liberty bonds were strong, foreign issues steady and the general list little changed, the slightly better; total sales aggregated $14,500,000.

Chicago Livestock Market

LOCAL RECRUITING STATION NOTES

Training Troops

The secretary of war has directed that information be forwarded to the commanding generals of the Hawaiian, Philippines and Panama Canal departments that at all posts educational and vocational training should be carried on to its fullest extent practicable. Such training should begin at once and is considered part of the duty of all commanding officers. For the present this training will not be compulsory and not more than 15 hours per week will be devoted to vocational and educational training as the military efficiency of commands must remain the main consideration. An allotment of funds for vocational training is now being made.

Photographs for Recruiting

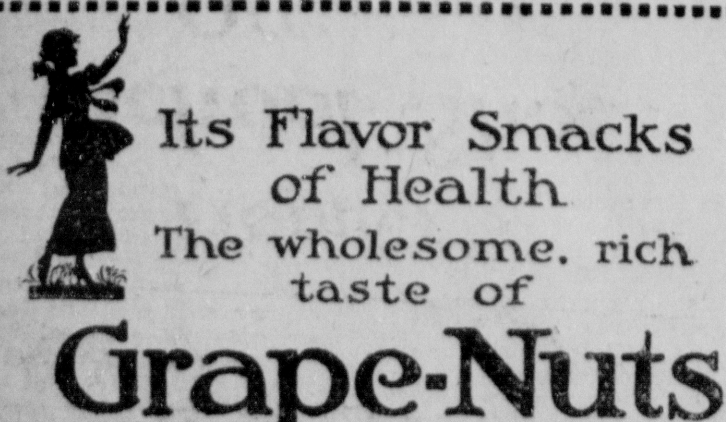

There are scattered throughout the service many kodak films and plates depicting the activities of the army in the United States, abroad and in our foreign possessions. This material covers a period of many years, extending back to dates before the activities of the photographic section of the signal corps commenced. These photos are of great value to the war department for historical purposes and incidentally for the use of the recruiting service or other instrumentalities of the war department. With a view to preserving these photos and the official use of them as the war department desires, the adjutant general requests co-operation of all officers in the service. Films, plates and prints depicting activities of the army should be forwarded to the Historical Branch, War Plans Division, General Staff, with such descriptive matter as will identify the photos as to personal, military unit, place and date.

COUNCIL FIXES DATE FOR BOND ELECTION

WILL BE HELD TUESDAY, OCTOBER 7TH.

Rope to Have Officials Serve Without Pay—Decide to Postpone All Street Paving Work Except East State Street—Complaint Filed by Fourth Ward Residents Against City Swine.

The city council passed the bond ordinance at the session Monday night and fixed on Tuesday, Oct. 7, as the date for holding the election. It is the intention to secure as many election officials as possible to serve without pay, and the same plan will be followed in connection with polling places. This matter was left to the aldermen in the different wards and the election ordinance with an emergency clause will be passed at the meeting next Monday night.

The action with reference to the bond issue was the most important taken, altho various matters were discussed. Mr. Pyatt read the minutes of the previous meeting and some other routine business was given attention. The roll call showed present Aldermen Flynn, McGinnis, Graff, Williamson, Cain, Moore, Chapin and Kline.

Complain of Bad Odors.
A petition was presented, signed by residents of the Fourth ward, making complaint about the offensive odors from the lot where the city hogs are maintained by the garbage department. This complaint was signed by J. J. Bergsneider, W. J. Jackson, A. A. Jackson, Mrs. V. E. Moore, Kate Cranwell, E. G. Todd, Ida Long, E. L. Hatfield, Josephine Hatfield, T. A. Ebbey and F. J. Heintz.

The ordinance providing that special scavenger work shall be done in certain months of the year omitting the hot summer period, was given a second reading and adopted.

One of the most important acts was in connection with street paving. Mr. Crabtree said that at an earlier meeting he had suggested that the city attorney and city engineer take whatever action was necessary as to pending public improvements, with the idea that any projected paving shall be done as speedily as possible. The mayor said that Mr. Bellatti had asked if it would not be a wise course on the part of the council to postpone all paving until the cost of materials reaches a more nearly normal level.

Oppose More Paving.
This statement brought about extended discussion and on motion of Alderman Graff with a second by Alderman Moore, it was decided that no street paving shall be pushed at this time except that on East State street. Alderman Flynn said it would be very hard on property owners to lay pavements at this time, with the high cost of materials and labor to be taken into consideration. Other aldermen took the same view, with the result that the motion for delay was passed unanimously.

It is possible that there may be some variation of the rule with reference to the extension of the East State street pavement and the strip that would connect the Morton road with the city. As in both instances, non-residents have expressed the willingness to pay a part of the construction costs.

Mayor Crabtree reported that an exhaust steam pipe at the plant of the Railway & Light company had been removed. The mayor at the suggestion of Alderman Flynn and Alderman Chapin, agreed to call the attention of Supt. Gray of the Railway & Light company to certain projecting gas pipes on Brown street which constitute a menace to people who use the sidewalk there.

At the suggestion of Alderman Moore a vote of thanks was sent to the men of Centenary church for the supply of burgoo soup sent to the employees in various city departments.

Work of Traffic Men.
Mayor Crabtree referred to the action taken by a number of the special traffic officers under the leadership of T. C. MacVicar. Four or five of them were stationed on South Main street Saturday night and called attention to all violations of the law. It is the plan for a squad of these traffic men to be on this special duty for a number of nights with the intention of bringing about better observance of the law on all thoroughfares.

An ordinance providing for the levying of a tax of $10.00 to refund bonds and an equal amount to pay the interest on bonds, was given a first reading. This measure was presented so that if the bond ordinance is approved at the election, the necessary steps will have been taken to make it possible to next year pay the first installment of the bonds, together with the interest on the whole issue.

Reference was made to the card system traffic men are using and it was decided that the council would pay for the cards and supplies that may be needed.

Will Repair Culverts

On motion of Alderman Moore, with a second by Alderman Cain, it was decided to have the railings on brook culverts from South Main to Hardin avenue repaired. There was some further discussion about the sewer connections desired by Mrs. Dunavan of Hardin avenue, and William Haneline of Park place, and this matter was referred to Supt. of Streets White and Public Engineer Henderson, with power to act.

The city clerk read from the ordinance to call attention to the proper charges to be made in such cases.

Officers' Reports.
The report of Dr. A. M. King, Majestic Theatre.

health warden, was filed showing 23 deaths in the city during the month of August, of that number ten being at Jacksonville State hospital. The range of deaths was under 1, two, 1 to 5, one; 5 to 20, one; 20 to 50, ten; 50 to 100, twelve; over 70, three.

In the list of contagious diseases, one case of mumps was reported and one case of typhoid fever. The report of Squire Dyer showed fines $82.70; city costs $17.10; J. P. costs $30.60; back fines, $4, a total of $134.40.

MRS. CHARLIE CHAPLIN AT LUTTRELL'S THURSDAY

Mildred Harris—Mrs. Charlie Chaplin—strikes a new note in the range of her artistry in "Forbidden." Her first Jewel production since "Home." She is first seen as a simple-minded country girl engaged to a buccolic swain. Then like an answer to her prayers comes Fred Worthington—handsome, wealthy, refined. But he is surfeited with the emptiness of the endless round of metropolitan pleasures while she craves it with all her soul. The entrancing story of her efforts to meet a common ground of understanding is told in "Forbidden," the latest Universal Jewel release, produced by Lois Weber at the Universal studios. Mrs. Charlie Chaplin, Mildred Harris, is the star. "Forbidden" is the Thursday attraction at Luttrell's Majestic Theatre.

HIGHWAYMAN WORK AT NICHOLS PARK

Daniel Hansel Robbed of $46 Early Sunday Morning—Edward McCollister and Leonard Bonto Arrested on Charge—Give Bond for Appearance.

Edward McCollister and Leonard Bonto, two local young men, were arrested Sunday by the police charged with robbing Daniel Hansel, an employee of Swift & Company, of $46 in currency at Nichols park early Sunday morning. The men gave bond for their appearance before Justice Opperman Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

The victim of the robbery in company with Miss Louisa Bottoms attended the regular Saturday night dance at the park Saturday evening. Just before the dance closed Hansel and Miss Bottoms went to Muller's and Hamilton's stand to get refreshments. The orchestra was playing the last number while they were there.

Hansel had gotten his check cashed late that afternoon and had the money in a pocketbook. He took the book out to pay his bill at the stand and evidently the robbers saw the money. When Hansel and the young woman started to leave the park two men jumped from behind a clump of shrubbery adjacent to the walk.

One of the men seized Hansel from behind and pinioned his arms to his sides while the other reached in his pocket and took the pocketbook. Miss Bottoms screamed for help but the highwaymen disappeared in the darkness.

Hansel hastened to a telephone and notified the police department of the robbery. Acting Night Captain Hurst and Patrolman Stewart went to the park and a thorough search was made but no trace of the robbers could be found.

Both Hansel and Miss Bottoms gave a description of the robbers and both were confident they would be able to identify them. With the description the entire police force went to work and Sunday afternoon Bonto was placed under arrest and about 7 o'clock Sunday evening McCollister was arrested.

Both men were identified by Hansel as the men who robbed him. However, McCollister and Bonto denied any knowledge of the robbery, saying they had been at Nichols park Saturday evening but that they left about 11:30 o'clock. The robbery was committed a few minutes after midnight.

Chief Kiloran said Monday that the entire police force deserved credit for the work on the case as they all worked diligently thru the early hours Sunday morning and during the day Sunday.

Following the apprehension of McCollister and Bonto, Hansel went before Justice Opperman and swore out a state's warrant charging them with highway robbery. They gave bond for their appearance and their hearing was set for 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

AN OLD LANDMARK

The ancient frame dwelling house immediately east of the De Silva lunch stand on West State street is being removed. The lot is 61 feet by 180 and the land will be used to make it a popular place of resort in the shape of a summer garden with many attractive features and preliminary to this he is having the old house wrecked and removed.

The origin of the house is shrouded in mystery but it seems to be about the oldest frame structure in this vicinity. Dr. P. L. Brown said he bought it some forty years ago and then was unable to ascertain from the oldest inhabitants when it was built. He found one man who he lived in it in 1832 and is inclined to think it must have been built about 1825 or not long after. It was erected in the substantial manner of the early days and will supply a lot of kindling as well as some lumber.

Dr. T. O. Hardesty, returned from service, will be found at 336 West State St. Hours 10 to 12 and 2 to 5, daily.

PUBLIC SALE

Mrs. Chas. E. Taylor will hold a sale of her home 6 1/2 miles southeast of Jacksonville and 5 miles northeast of Woodson on Tuesday, September 9th, commencing at 10 a. m. Horses, cattle, hogs, sheep and farm implements will be offered.

HAD TO GET HELP

A man from the south part of the county was in the city yesterday morning trying to hire men to go out and help fill a silo. He approached some men who were "roasting" and offered them six dollars a day and they decided they would repose a while longer. The reporter didn't hear what the men had to say nor their reasons for not going but they seemed to have leisure according to the story of the gentleman who wanted their help.

CORNER STONE OF NEW TRINITY CHURCH LAID

Bishop Granville Sherwood of the Diocese of Springfield Officiated at Ceremony—Regular Form of Prayer and Praise of the Church Carried Out.

Deeply impressive were the ceremonies of the laying of the corner stone of the new Trinity church now in the course of erection on the site of the first church. The ceremony took place at four o'clock Monday afternoon. Owing to the recent indisposition of Bishop Sherwood who was in charge of the ceremonies of laying the stone, he delivered no address. The regular form of prayer and praise of the church at the laying of the corner stone of a church or chapel was carried out under the direction of Dr. J. F. Langton.

A large number of the congregation gathered to take part in the ceremonies. Bishop Sherwood, Dr. Langton supported by Senior Warden H. M. Andre bearing the Cross and Junior Warden Dr. J. G. Ames bearing the American flag took their places on a platform just over the corner stone.

The company assembled in front and took part in the songs and prayers. A deep solemnity pervaded the scene and it will live in the hearts and minds of those present.

Dr. Langton, assisted by the congregation, carried out the regular ritual. He also read a list of the articles that had been placed in the box. These articles are:

Articles Placed in Cornerstone

Early History of Trinity Parish.

Late History of the Parish.

History of the restoration of Dr. Langton.

Various papers regarding war activities of the church and congregation.

Records and articles in the box of the first corner stone.

List of members, vestry and subscribers to building fund.

Names of architects and contractors.

In closing Dr. Langton read the following prayer which was delivered by the bishop who laid the corner stone of the first Trinity church in 1832. The prayer follows:

"May the great Head of the Church prosper the erection of this house, now commenced in His name, and fill it with His presence and glory through generations, Amen."

Bishop Sherwood Lays Stone.
Bishop Sherwood then carried out the ceremonies of laying the corner stone saying as he struck the stone thrice with the trowel:

"In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, Amen."

"I lay the corner stone of an edifice to be here erected by the name of Trinity church, to be devoted to the service of Almighty God, according to the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Holy Catholic church in these United States of America."

AUTOISTS BEWARE OF THE LITTLE RED TAGS

Tag System Adopted by the Police Department to Warn Autoists of Traffic Violations.

If you drive an automobile and find a red tag on your car it indicates that you have violated some provision of the traffic law and you would best beware or the tag cop will get you.

The tags were being prepared Monday and police and special traffic officers have familiarized themselves as to what to do with the tags. The main object of the tag is to give violators a warning before drastic action is taken.

The tags bear the various violations contained in the law. If an officer sees a car, the driver of which has violated one of these provisions, he will attach the tag. The specific violation will be marked in the square opposite the violation.

Chief of Police Kiloran and his assistants are determined to enforce the traffic laws. The tags bear the message to the autoist that a second violation means arrest and fine.

The various violations enumerated are:

License plates.
Speeding.
Muffler open.
No tail light.
Cutting corners.
Glaring headlights.
Passing stopped street car.
Parking on wrong side of street.
Running motor, car vacant.
